“On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say: ‘Jesus, son of David, have pity on me.’ And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent...Jesus stopped and said ‘Call him.’ So they called the blind man, saying to him, ‘Take courage, bet up, Jesus is calling you’. He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him reply, ‘What do you want me to do for you?’... ‘Master I want to see.’”

We have visited Jericho on several occasions. We remember the battle when Joshua brought the people into the promised land. We observed Zacchaeus climb the tree and Jesus visited his home. Today we find the blind beggar, sitting at the side of the road. He had the courage to call out to Jesus.

Others tried to impede him, but Jesus stopped, called him, and a beautiful eye opening conversation ensued. The question was asked, the answer given, sight was restored and Bartimaeus followed Him on the way.

Sometimes we can get in the way of people like Bartimaeus, rather than facilitate their meeting Jesus. We become deaf when others are crying out in need. How different when we realize that we are the blind one, or deaf to Jesus' call.

He asks me today ‘what do you want me to do for you?’ Do I have an answer? Am I willing to ask the same question of Jesus? What does He expect of me?

May my eyes be opened to Bartimaeus in my life. May my prayer be ‘May my generosity bring joy to those in need, that in helping them I may see You.’

“Al enterarse de que pasaba Jesús, el Nazareno, se puso a gritar: ‘¡Jesús, Hijo de David, ten piedad de mí! Muchos lo reprendían para que se callara... Jesús se detuvo y dijo: ‘Llámenlo’. Entonces llamaron al ciego y le dijeron: ‘¡Animo, levántate! El te llama.’ Y el ciego, arrojando su manto, se puso de pie de un salto y fue hacia él. Jesús le preguntó: ‘¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?’. El le respondió: ‘Maestro, que yo pueda ver.’”

Hemos visitado Jericó en diferentes oportunidades. Recordamos la batalla cuando Josué llevó al pueblo a la tierra prometida. Observamos a Zaqueo cuando se subió al árbol y cuando Jesús lo visitó en su casa. Hoy encontramos al limosnero ciego, sentado a la orilla del camino. Tuvo el coraje de llamar a gritos a Jesús.

Otros trataron de impedirselo, pero Jesús se detuvo, lo llamó y una bella y reveladora conversación se desarrolló. Se hizo la pregunta, se dio la respuesta, se restauró la visión y Bartimeo lo siguió por el camino.

A veces nos interponemos en el camino de personas como Bartimeo, en vez de ayudar a que el encuentro con Jesús se realice. Nos volvemos sordos cuando otros claman por sus necesidades. Todo cambia cuando nos damos cuenta de que somos los ciegos y que estamos sordos y no escuchamos el llamado de Jesús.

El me pregunta hoy: ‘¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?’ ¿Tengo una respuesta? ¿Estoy dispuesto a preguntarle lo mismo a Jesús? ¿Qué espera de mí?

Ojalá que mis ojos se abran a los Bartimeos en mi vida. Ojalá que mi oración sea: ‘Que mi generosidad traiga gozo a los necesitados, que al ayudarlos pueda yo verte.’
