Unto Dust: A LITERARY WAKE

Where: Fordham University
12th Fl. Lounge
E. Gerald Corrigan Conference Center
113 W 60th St

Date & Time: Thursday, Oct. 15th at 6pm

We live in a social era in which we give expression to our shared humanity by willingly sharing our most personal moments for public consumption. Yet confronting death remains for many an uneasy proposition. What is it about our shared mortality that provokes such resistance?

How has the Catholic tradition enriched our understanding of death and, consequently, our appreciation of life? Join us for a conversation about death, life, and the poetics of mortality.

This lecture is free.

St. MARY'S IS A TITHING PARISH

Tithing: God's Plan for Giving

Tithing: Weekend	Sept. 26/27	2015	$4,098
Income: Weekend	Sept 27/28	2014	$3,190

“That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two become one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate...people were bringing their children to him that he might touch them...he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.”

Filled with the spirit of the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia, and the presence of Pope Francis, the scriptures are reminding us of all that has transpired. It is God who joins together; it is Christ who is waiting for us to bring our children to Him.

As we reflect on family and family life, we realize that we all belong to the family of God. We are blessed with others around us, to support, guide, teach and understand us. Our family might consist of widows and widowers, single parents, newly married couples or blessed silver or golden anniversary couples. All lives created by God and enriched with His blessings.

As Jesus reached out to embrace, bless and touch the children, so He does with us. May we respond as we reach out to others, we bring Christ, His presence and peace to them. Pope Francis tells us ‘we are created in order to love, as a reflection of God and His love.’ Regardless of our current condition, remember, we are all part of a family, a mirror of and reflection of God's love.

For this we are grateful to God for His gift of love, His embrace, His countless blessings.

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

SANTA MARIA ES UNA PARROQUIA QUE DIEZMA DIEZMAR ES EL PLAN DE DIOS
Diezmo:	Fin de semana	26/27	Sep.	2015 $4,098
	Fin de semana	27/28	Sep.	2014 $3,190

“Por eso el hombre deja a su padre y a su madre y se une a su mujer, y los dos llegan a ser una sola carne. Que el hombre no separe lo que Dios ha unido ... le trajeron entonces a unos niños para que los tocara ... los abrazó y los bendijo, imponiéndoles las manos.”

Llenos del espíritu del Congreso Mundial de la Familia en Filadelfia, y de la presencia del Papa Francisco, las escrituras nos recuerdan de todo lo que ha pasado. Es Dios quien une, y es Cristo quien espera que le traigamos a nuestros niños.

Al reflexionar sobre la familia y la vida familiar, nos damos cuenta de que todos pertenecemos a la familia de Dios. Se nos bendice con la compañía de otras personas que nos apoyan, guía, enseñan y comprenden. Nuestra familia puede incluir viudas y viudos, padres solteros, parejas de recién casados, o parejas que celebran aniversarios de plata y oro. Todas estas vidas han sido creadas por Dios y enriquecidas con sus bendiciones.

Así como Jesús abrazó y tocó a los niños, así mismo lo hace con nosotros. Ojalá que podamos corresponder cuando nos acercamos a otros, trayéndoles a Cristo y su presencia de paz. El Papa Francisco nos dice que ‘hemos sido creados para amar, como un reflejo de Dios y su amor’. Sin importar nuestra presente condición, recuerde que todos somos parte de una familia, un espejo y el reflejo del amor de Dios.

Por esto estamos agradecidos con Dios por su regalo de amor, su abrazo y sus infinitas bendiciones.
